Doings of The Legislature---The School Bill Iniquity ... Special Session of the Legislature to be Ordered.

Special to the Memphis APPRAL. JACKSON, MISS., July 20.-The Senate passed bills to incorporate the Holly Springs and Brownsville railroad, and the Memphis and Holly Springs railroad. Nothing was done iu, the House worth mentioning, except the passage of a bill incorporating the Meridian and New Orleans railroad. The Governor will convene the Legislature in an extra session as soon as it adjourns. It is hoped this rumor will prove unfounded. Both Houses are hurrying up, and have transacted a great deal of business of sparsely local nature.

The general railroad law that has passed again, includes the social equality claim. On overruling the veto of the Printing Bill, the requisite two-thirds couldn't be had.

MEMPHIS TENN., June 1, 1870.

We the un errigued, before we placed oursely sunder D. Jerome Pancost's trea ment for the cure of that hend affections of the Langs, had fully come to the conclusion that there was no remedy or mode of med cation for the cure of these complaints, in which we could place any reasonable amount of confidence, we had so long been domest to disappointment; and we are fully confident, we had so long been domest to disappointment; and we are fully confident, we had so long been domest to disappointment; and we are fully confident this opinion is largely shared in by nearly every person suffering from these dangerous casses of mainties.

Having been subject to the se most annoying and painful diseases for a number of years before we began Dr. Pancost's treatment, notwithstanding we made use of everything we had heard recommended, as well as had the advice and attention of some of the most eminent, physicians, but derived no benefits winstever from their treatment. We feel that we can in no way better serve the cause of suffering humanity than to publicly bear our testimony to the permanent relief we have obtained from this rational plan of medication.

We can, with entire confidence, comment Dr. Pancest and his New System of Practice to all who desire a Sprant and Radical can rely with entire confidence.
